Background: In this module you have learned about computer graphics and animation. You have been given a variety of projects to complete each day that have taught you how to generate computer graphics. You have also learned about design elements such as architectural CAD, packaging designs for products, and animation creations. All of these components are fundamental to the computer graphics industry.

Scenario: Explain the steps you followed to design and print out the business card in Day 3. Justify why you selected the design and the font and other information that you placed on the business card. Give the steps of your progress through the design procedure to obtain your final result. Compare your design to other business cards that you have seen in the past.

1st Paragraph: Write an introduction by explaining the above scenario in your own words.

2nd Paragraph: Write a description of the business card you created in Day 3. Explain how you decided on your topic, selected your graphic(s) and text for it, and created and printed the final printout.

3rd Paragraph: Argue why business cards are a better way to advertise than each of the following: newspaper ads, highway signs, and brochures.

4th paragraph: Go out to the Internet and research words pertaining to your critical writing; include what you have found (IN YOUR OWN WORDS).

5th paragraph: Using vocabulary you learned in your module, compare your business cards to others you have seen. (Look some designs up on the Internet if you need to). Then explain the good qualities of your business card. Also explain changes you could have made to improve the design and/or quality of your business card.
